

The Young Executives Club is the future of NationalLease...
Be a part of our inaugural event!

Affinia Chicago, Chicago, IL – July 27th & 28th, 2009

The NationalLease Young Executives Club will give NationalLease's young executives the opportunity to exchange ideas, pursue learning & leadership training, also share strategies to help achieve personal & professional growth and overall success in the NationalLease System.

Day One (1 pm – 5 pm). Opening ceremonies for the initial Young Executives Club meeting chaired by Andrew Flynn of TCI Leasing/Rentals, a NationalLease Member. After some short statements of support and well wishes from a few of our more "experienced leaders", we will form the structure and direction of the NationalLease Young Executives Club. Brandon Ost, Chief Executive Officer of The Filtration Group, will give a presentation on what he values as a young, third generation leader of his family owned organization and share guidance from a similar organization that he takes part.

Day One (6 pm –). Take part in a unique Chicago experience that all will surely remember & enjoy. Join your fellow young executives atop a rooftop overlooking Wrigley Field's ballpark as the Chicago Cubs take on the Houston Astros.

Day Two (8 am – 12 pm). Beginning with a Leadership Training Seminar/Workshop (soon to be announced) followed by open forum regarding the future of the NationalLease Young Executives Club. The group will identify a committee consisting of five members of who will formulate the direction and future of this unique club.

Who Should Attend? Any direct heir to the leadership/ownership of a NationalLease organization who is at or under the age of 45.

Registration/Fees. Initial meeting will have no registration fees (each attendee will be responsible for his/her own travel/hotel). The cost of each meeting will be discussed by the group & in the future will be divvied among the club participants.
